

CCS parents say...

2016 Parent Survey Results

The April 2016 survey showed CCS parents to be positive about every aspect of the school, from mission faithfulness to financial management.

Parents rate academic quality especially high.

"The nurturing approach and personal attention from teachers provides a beautiful and inviting environment for supporting students academically."

Parents value the integration of faith and learning.

"My kids are known at Calvin. They feel loved and accepted, all while being provided with exceptional education."

Other Results

"A nurturing, caring, and very personal community environment— a beautiful picture of how all schools should be."

